Woodland Hills Marching Band

ACT 2 (2:20-3:05pm)

Jane West

Solo acoustic

Bio:

Putting Jane West into one specific genre is nearly impossible. She summons Americana voices like Emmylou Harris & Bobbi Gentry with the contemporary sounds of Lake Street Dive & Margo Price in a relaxed, engaged atmosphere.

Named one of the top ten unsigned music artists of The Pittsburgh City Paper in 2021 and winning first place at Greensburg's "Rock The Palace Battle of The Bands" in 2016, and she can currently be found every 3rd Friday of the month at Fat Head's Saloon. Jane is thrilled to be at Edgewood Community Day.

ACT 8 (7:05-7:45pm)

Wojo

Solo Acoustic

Bio:

Rooted in alternative rock, dipped in coffee shop acoustic, a dash of grunge with a smooth melodic finish, Wojo's music explores progressive new territory of his songwriting, incorporating elements of dance music, pop, metal, and psychedelia. Drawing from experience and observation, his introspective lyrics cover topics ranging from personal and artistic growth under constraints of society/popular culture to relationship ideals and failings to struggles with external and internal demons. Despite the abundance of heavy subject matter, Wojo is able to leverage his craft to show us there's a beauty in the sadness, poetically and passionately
