ITEMS FROM THE FLOOR

Mark Kozar – Flaherty & O'Hara

Mr. Kozar spoke on behalf of his client, Scene 75 Pittsburgh Entertainment Center, LLC. Mr. Kozar spoke to the nature of the Scene 75 business, which is an indoor family entertainment center with arcade games, bowling, bounce room, go karts and mini golf. Scene 75 will also have a restaurant and food offerings, and is requesting a liquor license transfer in order to serve alcohol to compliment the food service. Mr. Kozar said at Scene 75's three Ohio locations, alcohol sales account for 6% of total sales. Mr. Kozar said Scene 75 only allows those over the age of 21 to handle or serve alcohol, even though law permits anyone over 18 to serve alcohol. He discussed on site security, carding policies and hours of operation. Mr. Kozar said Scene 75 was investing $8-10 million into this facility, and that this investment would be followed by responsible liquor management.

A discussion followed about security at the location.

M-1 Mr. Fuller moved and Dr. Wallace seconded to adjourn the meeting at 6:55 pm.

Julie P. Bastianini, Borough Manager
